

Admin Sequence diagram

- 1.0- Login with valid username and password
- 2.0- Users can navigate between the various learning categories located in the navigation bar, which is three categories' Languages, Mathematics, Technology. Users can navigate through the navigation bar upon selection, page of the selected category will load containing various articles, recordings and videos related to that category.
- 3.0- User/Admin can find in homepage Text Input Field Labelled by "What do you want to share?" When he clicks on it a pop-up window will show up where he will find drop down list (to choose the category), Article button and Upload button. Also, he can navigate to certain category and click on Input Text Field "What do you want to share?" in this case user cannot find drop down list and will be able to choose between uploading videos or records from upload button or article from article button.
 - Article should not exceed 1000 character maximum.
 - Video should not exceed 35 Mb.
 - Video should be with mp4 extension.
 - Record should not exceed 35 Mb.
 - Record should be with mp3 extension.
- 4.0- A delete icon shaped  Will appear under all Articles, Videos, Records in Home page and categories pages which if he clicked on it this content will be deleted.
- 5.0- when admin clicks on drop down menu in navigation bar in home page. Then admin should press on profile, admin will find add user button to add new user the system redirects to the form and after filling all required fields and pressing Add button, the new user is added successfully to the database.
 - Username must be at least one character.
 - Username must not contain Special characters.
 - Username must not contain Numbers.
 - Email must be in valid format Ex: example @example.com.
 - Password must be at least five characters.

- Password must have least one numeric value.
- Password must have least one special character
- Confirm password must match the password in password field.
- admin can add user.
- admin can choose if user is admin or normal user.

6.0- when admin clicks on drop down menu in navigation bar in home page. Then admin should press on profile, admin will find delete user button to delete existing user the system redirects to the form and after filling all required fields(username -email) and pressing delete button, the user is deleted successfully to the database.

7.0 there would be a follow and unfollow buttons under the category name each category page.

when follow button is clicked user/admin will be following this category and will receive notifications if any file added to this category.

8.0- there would be a follow and unfollow buttons under the category name each category page.

when unfollow button is clicked user/admin will not be following this category anymore and will not receive notifications if any file added to this category.

9.0- by pressing on logout button from navigation bar and then the system redirects them to the login page of the system with no authorizations to the system functions.